

Government backs local plans for clean air in Greater Manchester

Drivers in Greater Manchester will not face additional charges as the area is set to benefit instead from an £86 million scheme to clean up the region's air