

Government boosts growth-driving creative industries in Merseyside and the West Midlands

Creative technology firms and artists in Merseyside and the West Midlands are in line for a major financial boost, as a £13.5 million investment in training, research and development funding is announced by the Culture Secre..