

Government boosts support for veterans ahead of Remembrance

Housing support for UK veterans has been guaranteed after the government committed new additional funding for veterans' homelessness support programmes