

Government clarifies rumour

In response to an online media report saying that the Chief Executive has requested the People's Liberation Army to assist in handling the recent conflicts, a Government spokesman clarifies that the report is totally unfounded.

The Government spokesman expressed deep regret over the untrue report by the media outlet involved.