

Government commits to a genuine living wage for working people

In a move to put more money in working people's pockets, the government has today [Tuesday 30th July] overhauled the remit of the Low Pay Commission (LPC).