

Government Defence and Security Advocate reappointed

The Government has reappointed Lord Mark Lancaster as its Defence and Security Advocate, to drive the UK's defence and security export success until March 2026.