

Government delivering on 60,000 more special needs places

Councils are to receive a record £850 million cash boost to ensure children across the country receive an education that meets their needs.