

Government dismisses rumours

The Government today (December 11) dismissed online rumours that the Chief Executive, Mrs Carrie Lam, has told the media that the pro-establishment District Council members who lost in the election would be given public duties with high salaries and allowances. A Government spokesman said that the quote is totally fabricated.