

Government financial boost for small and medium housebuilders

The government has extended the existing Home Building Fund beyond March next year.