

Government finishes exercise on “restriction-testing declaration” in respect of specified “restricted area” in Tsui Ning Garden, Tuen Mun and enforcement operation for breaches of compulsory testing notice

The Government yesterday (March 12) exercised the power under the Prevention and Control of Disease (Compulsory Testing for Certain Persons) Regulation (Cap. 599J) to make a "restriction-testing declaration" effective from 3pm that day, under which people (hereafter referred to as "persons subject to compulsory testing") within the specified "restricted area" in Tuen Mun (i.e. Block 1, Tsui Ning Garden, Tuen Mun, excluding Tsui Ning Garden Management Office) were required to stay in their premises and undergo compulsory testing. Persons subject to compulsory testing were required to stay in their premises until all such persons identified in the "restricted area" had undergone testing and the test results were mostly ascertained.

Moreover, the Government issued a compulsory testing notice yesterday, requiring persons subject to compulsory testing who had been present at the above building for more than two hours from February 27 to March 12, 2022, even if they were not present in the "restricted area" at the time when the declaration took effect, to undergo compulsory testing on or before March 14, 2022. The Government announced the completion of the compulsory testing exercise at around 9.45am today (March 13) and carried out enforcement action in the "restricted area" afterwards to verify that all people in the "restricted area" had undergone compulsory testing in accordance with the requirements of the relevant declaration and compulsory testing notice. The Government announced that the enforcement operation ended at around 2pm today.

The Government provided food packs for persons subject to compulsory testing to facilitate the meal arrangements of persons subject to compulsory testing. Anti-epidemic proprietary Chinese medicines donated by the Central Government and rapid antigen test kits were also provided to each person subject to compulsory testing to help them fight against the virus.

The Government also set up a hotline for people restricted by the declaration to make enquiries and seek assistance.

The Government thanks persons subject to compulsory testing for their support and understanding. With everyone's co-operation and efforts, coupled with the tireless efforts of the testing contractors, residents have been informed about their testing results by SMS notification.
