

Government funding for schools in England at a record high

Funding for mainstream schools and high needs is increasing to the highest ever in real terms per pupil.