

Government increases licence fees for gambling operators

The Government has today published its response to a consultation on proposals to increase the fees payable by gambling operators to the Gambling Commission.