

Government introduces new Fiscal Lock Law to deliver economic stability and protect family finances

New law bringing economic stability introduced to the House of Commons following the King's Speech.