

Government investment in homes and jobs tops £1.8bn to support a housing-led recovery

From Carlisle to Cornwall and Manchester to Medway, the government is investing in transport, schools and community facilities that will enable new homes to be built and boost local economies.