

Government is failing children who will have no place to call home this Christmas – Melanie Onn

Melanie Onn MP, Labour's Shadow Housing Minister, responding to new figures on the number of children set to be homeless this Christmas, said:

"It is heart-breaking that 128,000 children will wake up on Christmas morning with no place to call home. The Conservative Government is failing them.

"This shames us all. Ministers must back Labour's national plan to end this homelessness crisis."
