

Government issues new strategic steer to guide CMA direction for the future

The UK government has set out top priorities to ensure the continued effectiveness of the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA)