

Government launches £1.5 million AI programme for reducing carbon emissions

Government launches new innovation programme to support the use of artificial intelligence (AI) in reducing the UK's carbon emissions.