

Government launches Industrial Strategy Advisory Council to boost growth and living standards

The government has announced the members of the Industrial Strategy Advisory Council, as the government looks to deliver long-term growth in key sectors.