

Government launches review to increase fairness in the egg supply chain

New review set to promote fairness, transparency and accountability across the egg supply chain, delivering on key commitments from the Farm to Fork Summit.