

Government makes next set of crucial changes to improve biosecurity at UK's trade border

Today (30 April 2024), the Government is strengthening its trade border to better detect pests and diseases from imported products.