

Government opens applications for £100,000 interim payment to the estates of victims of Infected Blood Scandal

Estates of people who died as a result of the Infected Blood Scandal can now apply to receive an interim payment of £100,000, in advance of a comprehensive compensation scheme.