

Government pledges further action to strengthen patient safety

Patient safety at heart of government's plans for healthcare reform as Health and Social Care Secretary orders action to improve regulator performance.