

Government responds to our safeguarding disabled children review

A statement from the panel following the government's response to 'Safeguarding children with disabilities in residential settings'.