

Government sets ambitious target to grow rail freight by at least 75%

Target will boost economic growth and lead to significant environmental benefits by taking lorries off our roads, cutting emissions and congestion in the process.