

Government to consult on reducing personal water consumption

Industry and consumers invited to bring forward ideas to reduce personal water consumption