

Government to invest £30 million in innovative technology for NHS

Applications are now open for Integrated care systems to apply for a share of £30 million to roll out innovative technology