

Government urges public not to believe in rumours

In response to online rumours that the Government will announce the suspension of work, classes and the stock market under the Emergency Regulations Ordinance, a Government spokesman today (November 11) said that these rumours are absolutely not true. He appealed to the public not to believe in such rumours, as doing so can lead to unnecessary chaos and fear.