

Government wins landmark case against freeholder owned by multibillion pound railway pension fund

The Department for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities has won a landmark legal challenge against freeholder Grey GR.