

Government Work Scheme delivers almost 100,000 placements highlighting Britain's new approach to Welfare

Almost 100,000 workplace training places have been delivered in the past year for jobseekers, smashing the Government's 80,000 annual target, new data has revealed.