

GP reforms to cut red tape and bring back family doctor

The measures are backed by the biggest boost to GP funding in years, an extra £889m on top of the existing budget for general practice