

Grant to fund research into mental wellbeing in vet industry

Scotland's Rural College has received a £20,000 grant for research focussed on mental health and wellbeing within the veterinary professions.