

Grassroots sports projects across Wales to receive nearly £4 million in funding

As part of the continued drive to get more people active, the UK Government, the Football Association of Wales and the Cymru Football Foundation have kicked off the year by announcing 64 projects across Wales are benefitting..