

Green light for essential flood defence work in Par and St Blazey

The Environment Agency has received planning permission for a crucial part of the multi-million pound St Austell Resilient Regeneration flood scheme (StARR).