

Ground-breaking cancer and Parkinson's research team given 5 year funding boost

Researchers at the University of Dundee are receiving a government funding boost to continue their vital work for a further 5 years.