

Ground investigation works start in Tadcaster for flood defences

Ground investigations have started in Tadcaster to help develop a flood defence scheme to better protect homes from the risk of flooding.