

Groundbreaking UK-Qatar climate technology partnership agreed

The UK's status as a clean energy superpower has received a further boost as a landmark agreement with Qatar reaches a significant milestone, solidifying £1 billion of investment in climate technology.