

Guatemalan private sector advocates to strengthening transparency in infrastructure development

A delegation from Guatemala joined a regional workshop aimed at promoting public-private collaboration and foster more transparent and data-driven planning and delivery of infrastructure.