

Guidance: Apply for funding to build border control posts for live animal imports

How maritime ports and commercial operators in England can apply for funding from the Animal Biosecurity Infrastructure Fund to build border control posts for live animal imports.