

Guidance: Breast screening: GP pre-screening pack

Breast screening services can send this pack to GP practices before their patients are invited for screening, to ensure invitations go to the correct people.