

Guidance for GPs to access extra flu vaccines as part of expanded vaccination programme

Guidance has been issued to GPs in England setting out how they can order more flu vaccines to ensure 30 million people can receive the jab this flu season.