

Guidance: General licence to move cattle from a non-exempt show in England

This allows you to move cattle from non-exempt agricultural shows in the low risk or annual surveillance testing parts of the edge area of England without post-movement TB testing.