

Guidance: Lead local flood authority: duty to maintain a register

Lead local flood authorities (LLFAs) must:

- create and maintain a register of a river's structures or features which might have an effect on a flood risk
- keep records of these structures or features, including their ownership and condition

LLFAs don't have to use this template to create their register and keep records.