

Guidance: M9: environmental monitoring of bioaerosols at regulated facilities

This technical note is for regulators, process operators and those with interests in monitoring. It is one of a series produced to provide a standardised approach for monitoring bioaerosols. It is applicable to facilities that have both ambient and point source emissions.