

Guidance: MCERTS: performance standard for laboratories testing samples from stack emissions monitoring

Updated: Amended some performance targets in Annex A. Minor corrections to text to add clarity.

This MCERTS standard requires laboratories that analyse stack emissions monitoring samples to be accredited by the United Kingdom Accreditation Service (UKAS) to ISO 17025 and to the requirements set out in this document.