

Guidance: Population screening: reducing inequalities in secure settings

Information for commissioners and screening providers to help improve access to screening for people in prisons and other secure and detained settings.