

Guidance: Training courses: oil pollution, contingency planning and response

Updated: Updated to the latest information note for 2018-19

The MCA's Counter Pollution Branch offers courses to local authorities on planning for and responding to shoreline oil pollution. This leaflet and booking form contains details and dates of current courses.