

Guidance: TSE testing of fallen cattle: approved premises

Updated: TSE approved plants documents updated

All fallen (dead) cattle over the age of 48 months must be tested for BSE in line with Regulation \(EC\) No 999/2001.

Premises in Great Britain must be approved by the Animal and Plant Health Agency (APHA) to carry out TSE testing on fallen cattle.