

Guidance: WEEE: list of local authority designated collection facilities

Updated: List updated with the latest information.

This document is published for compliance schemes and lists local authority designated collection facilities. Designated collection facilities are places where some household waste electrical and electronic equipment (WEEE) is collected before being sent for treatment, reuse and recycling.

If you aren't a business then find out how to recycle your household waste.