

Happenings at the Wighton!

From Sheena Wellington :

Wighton Heritage Centre, Central Library – today – Saturday 28th October, 11am (doors open 10.30am)

Cappuccino Concert with Alan Brown, singer, songwriter and raconteur. Tickets £5 (tea/coffee available for small donation).

Alan Brown was born and raised less than half a mile from where the present day Wighton Library stands and Dundee has been a major influence on his career to date. Exiled from the city since 1970 he is difficult to pigeonhole: singer, songwriter, musician, composer, novelist, journalist, after dinner speaker, playwright, poet, standup, tour guide, and is probably best summed as – an entertainer!

Despite thirty years performing professionally in Scotland and overseas this will be his first ever solo appearance in his hometown. Expect a varied programme of award-winning songs and stories, brand new material and a few surprises.
