

Heckington Fen Solar Park development consent decision announced

The Heckington Fen Solar Park application has today been granted development consent by the Secretary of State for Energy Security and Net Zero.